

Supporting the Retail Sector

March 2020

The Rushe Group is a Family run business, owned by John and Marcella Rushe, which has been providing their customers with a quality retail offering for over 30 years. The Group joined the SuperValu and Centra network in 2013 and continue to expand and invest strategically in the enhancement of their stores in Killiney, Dalkey, Naas and Stillorgan. The expansion of the business has seen the group progressively support their local communities; growing their staff numbers to over 200 and proactively engaging with local suppliers.

Pat Purcell, Senior Relationship Manager with Bank of Ireland said that "Bank of Ireland is delighted to have supported the Rushe Group with their investment plans, to enable them to continue providing a market leading retail experience to their growing customer base.

Bank of Ireland continues to actively support the Retail Sector, and our Head of Retail, Owen Clifford is regarded as a leading advocate and support to the Retail community across Ireland.

Owen Clifford said that: "In Bank of Ireland, we understand that regular, tailored investment is required to facilitate an excellent offering being delivered to the discerning Irish consumer. We are delighted to support the Rushe group and progressive family-owned retailers nationwide in developing their businesses into the future."

Shane Rushe, Operations Director for the Rushe Group comments "Bank of Ireland have been hugely supportive of our Business and our expansion plans and having a Banking Partner that has real knowledge of the retail sector is critically important to our business and future ambitions. We are delighted with the partnership approach from Bank of Ireland and are very optimistic about the opportunities going forward and our mission to provide our customers with the best quality offering in the marketplace, by delivering excellent value and top quality food, while supporting Irish suppliers."
